Chapter 1 by Hannah

Sam stands alone in his room with the music blared to the extreme not aware of what was going on upstairs. He reaches to turn it down but hears a scream. He bolts from his room out into the living room to find a man over his parents and a knife on his sisters neck. He freezes in disbelief blaming himself every second. Saying if he would have turned it down like his mother asked maybe they would still be here. Sam stands with tears in his eyes flooding down his checks. The man let's go and dashes off out the door. Sam bolts for his sister. Both orphins and both witnesses.
